GUIDELINES FOR A GOOD USE OF ISA AND RC LOGOS

In the website:

In your publications:

First page

These Statutes were first revised in 1993, then in 2003, 2010 and most recently in 2013.

STATUTES OF THE COMMITTEE ON FAMILY RESEARCH (RC06)

A. The purpose of the Committee on Family Research (CFR) of the International Sociological Association (ISA) is to encourage family research of high quality within and between countries.

- A. To fulfil this purpose the CFR engages in the following activities:
- It organizes the sessions on family at the meetings of the ISA.
- 2. It sponsors international seminars (at least one between ISA world congresses) on topics of theoretical, methodological or substantive importance as well as international training seminars to add to the skills of family researchers.

  3. It arranges for the publication of matters of importance in the research area of family.
- It provides an international roster of family sociologists for individuals and organiza-tions seeking consultation or research associates.
- 5. It seeks to keep its members informed of CFR activities.

  6. It engages in additional activities approved by the Executive officers with the consent of the membership.

  7. It provides a newsletter to the membership at least twice annually.

III. MEMBERSHIP

- A. A distinction is made between two types of individual membership:

  1. 'Regular members in good standing', defined as financial members of both the CFR and the ISA
- 2. 'Affiliated members', defined as financial members of the CFR only.
- B. Regular, affiliated, or student membership of the committee is open to all members of national sociological societies, members of research institutes affiliated with the ISA, research oriented members of national and international family organizations, as well as non-affiliated individual scholars who have demonstrated interest in the area through teaching or research activities.
- C. The CFR offers Life Membership to those who are 65 years older and who are regular members in good standing.

  D. The individual becomes a member upon payment of dues. Non-payment of dues will 2
- lead to loss of membership six months after the final period paid for.

  E. Dues are payable to the CFR secretariat. The amount is decided at the business - meeting for the coming four year period for regular, affiliated, as well as for student membership.
- F. All regular and affiliated members of the CFR shall be entitled to vote as individual members in the discussions about organisational matters at the General Meetings according to the principle "one member, one vote" that means that one institution also ere first revised in 1993, then in 2003, 2010 and most recently in 2013.

Following pages

COMMITTEE ON FAMILY RESEARCH (RC06)

of the Committee on Family Research (CFR) of the International ociation (ISA) is to encourage family research of high quality within and rpose the CFR engages in the following activities:

e sessions on family at the meetings of the ISA. ernational seminars (at least one between ISA world congresses) on retical, methodological or substantive importance as well as ining seminars to add to the skills of family researchers.

the publication of matters of importance in the research area of family. international roster of family sociologists for individuals and organizansultation or research associates.

p its members informed of CFR activities.

in additional activities approved by the Executive officers with the nembership.

ewsletter to the membership at least twice annually.

made between two types of individual membership: nbers in good standing', defined as financial members of both the CFR nbers', defined as financial members of the CFR only.

red, or student membership of the committee is open to all members ological societies, members of research institutes affiliated with the ISA, ed members of national and international family organizations, as well as dividual scholars who have demonstrated interest in the area through arch activities.

- Life Membership to those who are 65 years older and who are regular d standing.
- becomes a member upon payment of dues. Non-payment of dues will 2 lead to loss of membership six months after the final period paid for.
- E. Dues are payable to the CFR secretariat. The amount is decided at the business meeting for the coming four year period for regular, affiliated, as well as for student
- F. All regular and affiliated members of the CFR shall be entitled to vote as individual members in the discussions about organisational matters at the General Meetings according to the principle "one member, one vote" that means that one institution also